President's Report

The other day I was surfing the net and I came across the following statement:

"Leaders help themselves and others to do the right things. They set direction, build an inspiring vision and create something new.

Leadership is about mapping out where you need to go to "win" as a team or an organization; and it is dynamic, exciting, and inspiring". (Mindtools)

I thought about that definition and it occurred to me, that this statement is not only applicable to a business as we know it, but this statement is also applicable to the Dutch Society "Neerlandia".

The Committee Members are constantly working to do the right thing for the Club and we have set a direction and over the past two and a half years or so, we have created something new for the benefit of the Club and its Members.

The majority of Club Members have expressed their contentment with the new environment and Membership of the Sub-groups has grown since February, which is an indication that people feel that they are in the right place.

Going back to the quote at the top of this page, the Committee is approaching the next stage of its tasks: Mapping out where we need to go to win. And that is a major task, yet also an exciting task that we are looking forward to start working on.

In my previous report I mentioned the 5-year plan that the Committee has started.

However, to get a balanced plan, to reach a goal that satisfies all Members of our Club, we need to have Representatives of each age group. Currently the Club has a chronic shortage of Representatives in the 40 - 65 year age group and that is not good for the Club. The dynamics in the Club are changing, expectations are changing and so are the responsibilities of the Committee. And with that, we need new Committee Members, new team Members.

We need vision and know-how to complement the current Committee Members. Before the move to the Rhein Donau Clubhouse, Committee Members were involved in the daily running of a Clubhouse; whereas these days, the Committee is working on Neerlandia's future: Strategies, policies, dialogue, teamwork and leadership.

On Sunday 18 September 2016, Neerlandia will hold its AGM and this is Neerlandia's opportunity to welcome new Members on the Committee. We welcome professionals, inspiring parents - anyone with an understanding of the Dutch culture, anyone who is enthusiastic about Neerlandia as a Dutch Cultural Centre.

I invite you to contact either Eric van Waaijenburg on 0401 774 597 or myself on 0437 629 635 to sit down and discuss your interest in joining the Neerlandia Committee.

The latest on the position of 230 Cambridge Street is that the developer interested in our property, is still working on and trying to obtain permits needed to build his project.

We expect some movement in mid-June; at the moment the applications are with the Town of Cambridge.

Stuff Dutch People Like

STUFF DUTCH PEOPLE LIKE

"Stuff Dutch People Like" is a column written by an Australian correspondent living in the Netherlands.

This amusing column observes the Dutch in their everyday life.

We hope that you enjoy reading: "Stuff Dutch People Like" as much as we do.

The blog is available via the internet.

Sun, glorious sun.

Ever noticed how the Netherlands is a completely different country when the sun is shining? Seriously. Every year it catches me off guard, as the transformation is so instant and extreme.

This past Sunday was a glorious sunny day, so the family and I set off to explore the city. We didn't make it too far, as ThingOne was feeling "all bunched up" in our new double stroller and "needed to run". The impending crisis was avoided as her: "I NEED TO GET OUT" cries coincided perfectly with our stumbling upon a spacious city square/playground.

The loveliest thing about this particular playground is that the fenced in sandbox just happens to be next to a terraced cafe, which just happens to serve adult drinks next to the playground. Who says you can't find good service in the Netherlands? So, the hubby and I, ordered our G&T's in plastic beakers and took our spots on a sunny bench overlooking the nearby canal.

I gazed around taking in the sights of the Netherlands "first-days-of-sun". Things were definitely different: Birds were chirping, trees were blooming and the sky was an unfamiliar blue colour. But, that wasn't all: The people themselves were different. Relaxed. Happier. Friendlier. chattier.

Just as I was about to comment on this, a Dutch woman plopped down beside me and started enthusiastically chatting away. As if by reading my mind, the first thing out of her mouth was: "Isn't Amsterdam an entirely different city when the weather's warm?"

As long as I've lived here, I've always thought that Dutch people are seriously sun-deprived. The Dutch winter is long, wet and dark. Oh and did I mention it's long? Some years it feels like it spans the better half of the calendar year and some years it actually does. But with those first few sunny days, the country comes alive and out of the dark winter trenches emerges the beautiful city I fell in love with. On those first few sunny days, every cafe, bar and restaurant throws open its doors and eagerly starts setting up their terraces. Dutch people haul their dining rooms chairs (and sometimes tables!) outside their homes and sit proudly on their sidewalks soaking in the precious rays. The city's outdoor parks and squares immediately fill up. Endless boats cruise the canals. It doesn't matter what day of the week it is, if there's sun, the Dutch are nearly obliged to be out and about. Work? Didn't you get the memo?! Work can wait- the sun is here! Don't believe me? Take a walk around any city in the Netherlands this week and you will see outdoor terraces and cafes! overflowing with Dutch people. The Dutch make it happen, because above all, they've got their priorities straight. Meetings in stuffy boardrooms are swapped for outdoor rendez-vous, and indoor activities are moved to the fresh air. All hail the mighty sun! The Dutch you see are like sunflowers. You'll find them right now, as we speak, sitting outdoors, chairs turned and faces pointed directly to the sun, bathing in the light. One thing is for certain: If the sun is out, so are the Dutch.

Why the Dutch wear orange.

Last Maas & Waal Drinks, on 29 April, saw about 130 happy people dressed in orange. Orange is associated with the Dutch but why? After all, the Dutch flag is a horizontal red white and blue. Orange is the color of the Dutch Royal Family, which goes back to the House of Orange.

The House of Orange-Nassau is a branch of the German House of Nassau.

Wikipedia quotes:

"William I of Orange, amongst other names known as "Father of the Fatherland", organized the Dutch revolt against Spanish rule, which after the Eighty Years' War, led to an independent Dutch State."

On royal birthdays, the Dutch tricolor is flown with an orange pennant above it.

On King's Day, the normally rather subdued Dutch, when it comes to celebrating or partying, change into this one Big Loving Orange Family, which is so in our Dutch genes and a great spectacle for visitors.

The morning is spent watching TV to witness how the Dutch Royal Family visits nominated Dutch towns. While watching this spectacle, one consumes orange decorated cakes "tompoucen" and (copious amounts of) Oranje Bitters. Once the TV program is over, the Dutch flow into the streets to sing, dance and to sell and trade without a license - the famous "Freemarket".

So what is King's Day?

Former Queen Juliana, the current Dutch King's Grandmother, had her birthday on 30 April and so that day became Koninginnedag, (Queensday).

Former Queen Beatrix, daughter of Juliana and mother of King Willem Alexander, has her birthday on 31 January but, when Beatrix was crowned Queen of the Netherlands in 1980, as a gesture of respect to her mother and considering the climatic circumstances in the Netherlands in January, 30 April remained Koninginnedag.

The Netherlands now has a King, whose birthday is 27 April. Hence, Koninginnedag 30 April has now changed to Koningsdag (Kingsday) and is held on 27 April. And Neerlandia, one way or another, has always celebrated the Dutch Monarch's birthday with a serious orange happening.

In Perth these days, with a lot of younger Dutch migrants, the Dutch Consulate organizes an annual Orange dance fest in Fremantle in cooperation with Neerlandia; both parties have different dynamics but at the end of the day we all unite in being "Orange".

If you missed this year's get together in the Edelweiss Hall, make a note: Neerlandia is doing it again on 24 April 2017.

And on that note, apart from October and December, we are having our Maas & Waal Drinks every last Friday of the Month and you are invited. Make yourself known to one of our hosts / hostesses and we'll look after you.

Een groet,

De BoekHoek.

"Menthol" door auteur Frank Krake.

Hij zwart, zij blank.

Getrouwd uit passie, gescheiden uit pure liefde.

Want liefde overwint alle kleuren.

Ik bin swart van boeten, maor mooi van binnen.
En you Hengelpers bint mooi van boeten, maor pikswart van binnen.

(Joseph Sylvester - Menthol)

Recensie.

Amsterdam, 1925.

Joseph "Menthol" Sylvester, komt na een jarenlange zwerftocht aan in de hoofdstad van Nederland. Gevlucht voor de uitzichtloze situatie in zijn geboorteland Saint Lucia en voor de rassenhaat en het geweld van de Ku Klux Klan in Amerika. Een vlucht naar de vrijheid. Hij verdient zijn brood op markten met zijn Babajaba tandpasta, die hij aanprijst als "het natuurgeheim van het zwarte ras". Daarmee trekt hij het hele land door. Complete steden en dorpen lopen uit. "Menthol" leert Nederland tandenpoetsen. Roosje Borchert is een vrijgevochten dame van stand en staat als mannequin bekend als het mooiste meisje van de stad. Als zij Joseph tegenkomt is het liefde op het eerste gezicht. Hij zwart, zij blank. Een schier onmogelijke combinatie in de jaren twintig van de vorige eeuw. Maar het paar trotseert alles en iedereen en trouwt. Zij gaan wonen in een provinciestad waar nog nooit eerder iemand een zwarte man heeft gezien. Twaalf jaar later breekt de oorlog uit. Opnieuw dreigt Joseph's vrijheid te worden aangetast. Het echtpaar besluit te scheiden, uit pure liefde voor elkaar. En dat is maar goed ook....

De KookHoek.

Discover Holland's best kept secret: It's food! Our cuisine is not well known, but nonetheless exciting.

Amandelbroodjes.

Ingredients:

250 gr slivered almonds.
250 gr sugar.
1 teaspoon almond essence.
1 large egg.
Zest of 1/2 lemon.
8 squares of puff pastry.
1/4 cup coarse sugar.

Add the almonds, the sugar, the almond essence, one large egg and the lemon zest to a food processor and pulse repeatedly until the paste comes together. It should be sticky, but stiff and you should still be able to see itty-bitty pieces of almond and sugar crystals.

Preheat the oven to 180 C.

Take 50 gr of the almond paste and roll it into a small log. Wet the puff pastry with a little bit of water and place the log slightly to the right of the middle. Fold the dough over so that the long ends meet, and pinch the dough together or use a small fork to push the tines into the dough and sealing it. Brush a little bit of water on the top of the turnover and dip it into the coarse sugar. When all turnovers have been filled and folded, you then place them in the fridge until you are ready to bake.

Place them on a baking tray lined with parchment paper or on a silicon tray and cover with plastic so they don't dry out. You can wrap and freeze any leftover spijs.

Bake for 20 minutes, or until the tops are golden and puffy. No worries if they look too big, the dough will slightly collapse as it cools!

Almond paste gets really, really hot, so don't bite into a hot amandelbroodje just yet.

Let it cool until warm to the touch - that's when they're at their best!

Enjoy!

The April Maas & Waal Borrel

Hello Medelanders,

An update on the latest Maas en Waal Borrel. As the evening was on 29th April it was quite busy with a very lively atmosphere; there was a lot of Oranje present due to the KONINGS DAG celebrations. There were a lot of familiar- and new faces; it was really good to see everyone again. Each of us had a great time, so much so that we welcomed three new members!

It was also very nice to see that the children came along to take up the “VRIJMARKT” in the Edelweiss Hall. This was a great way to top up their piggy banks and for the parent to get rid of those unwanted toys and other stuff. We hope that they will join us again next time.

During this M&WB, we proudly introduced the May issue of the Neerlandia Magazine - in full colour. This was of course received with great enthusiasm and everyone agreed that the colour version of the magazine is a beautiful improvement of an already quality product.

We encourage you to keep visiting those Friday nights and to enjoy the beautiful food prepared by Chef Rudi. Rudi alternates Bassi and Bami dishes in addition to traditional Dutch foods like Stampot or Zuurkoolschotel.

Come and see us and if your visit is the first visit, please make yourself known to hostesses Joyce and Astrid, they will introduce you to the Maas & Waal Borrel.

At the moment the Committee is looking at ways to setup a (limited) Nederlands Winkeltje at the clubhouse. As, like you, we enjoy to have access to Dutch products in our Clubhouse. With this new concept we are trying to create a “moveable” stall with products that we can offer to our members during our own functions. It will be a limited range with no perishables on offer yet it will be good to be able to purchase DUTCH products in the DUTCH Club again.

All this is in cooperation with Chef Rudi, who is exploring the possibility of selling sealed DUTCH cheeses.

We hope to have more updates in our next magazine.

Dutch Decorations and Members Birthdays

UNIFIL Nobel Prize Insignia handed out on Kings Day at the Consulate-General in Sydney.

In Sydney the Consulate-General of the Netherlands had a Kings Day reception with a special angle, shedding a light on three guys of our Dutch community, who were involved in something very special quite a long time ago.

We gave Maikel Sweekhorst, Henk Haasjes and Arthur Jacobs, credit for their military service in Lebanon. Present was the largest crowd that we could possibly assemble during our Kings Day reception with over 500 guests.

As Consul-General Willem Cosijn stressed during his King's Day speech, that we, as a country, pulled our men out of their ordinary lives and we put them in extraordinary circumstances. That is what we ask from our soldiers and that is always okay. But we must respect them highly for that – always.

After his speech he awarded the three ex-UNIFIL soldiers the Nobel prize insignia in Sydney. Credit where credit is due.

The following Members will celebrate their birthday during the month of June 2016. We wish them all a very Happy Birthday!

Support Worker Lunch at Miss Maud.

What a pleasure to see so many Support Worker attending this lunch and having fun on Tuesday 22th of March.

It was our very late Christmas Party, which we could not do earlier because of the move to the new office and other unforeseen issues.

We had two Board members attending. Ray Halligan gave a nice speech and told the staff how much the Board appreciates the great commitment and service they all give.

Eleonore Fuchter was mingling with the staff and had an open ear for suggestions from staff members.

Four of our fantastic Support Workers received a small gift for their outstanding work and dedication.

Audrey, Alexia and Jenny will receive their gift at a later time but know about it and do appreciate it.

Well done and a big "Thank You" to all Support Workers for their fantastic work.

UNSPENT FUNDS.

Many of you still have unspent funds, which unfortunately is not helping us, as a provider, as we continue carrying the liability for those funds. The Government has announced that, from March 2017, all unspent funds will go back to the Government, should the consumer pass away.

Why don't you use what you are entitled to, to make your life easier and your environment more comfortable?

If you are one of the consumers who have a high balance sitting in your budget, please consider some of the options available (see examples below) and talk to your Coordinator.

What could I do to improve the quality of my life at home?

For example, would I benefit from any one or more of the following:

- Window cleaning.
- Help in the garden.
- Meals on Wheels.
- Spring Clean the house.
- Or just extra social support, having an outing.
- Any adjustments in or around the house for a safe environment.

If you have more questions, please contact the Care Team.

The Volunteer Visitor's Lunch.

The Volunteer Visitor's lunch at Miss Maud on Friday the 8th of April was an absolute success.

It was delightful for Annegret and myself (Jose) to see the volunteers in person so we can now put faces with names. Lovely to see our Board Members and the Volunteers received some nice feedback in speeches from them. Also nice to give them a "Thank you" for the fantastic work they do for our Community, in their own time for our lovely, special people.

The Lunch Buffet and service at Miss Maud was as always very nice. Henri Koldenhoven held a short speech and gave a plant to Babette, who is leaving us, as a "Thank you".

Then it was Goodbye for Babette for the great work she has done as CVS Coordinator and she was welcomed as a Volunteer visitor. May her well-deserved retirement be an enjoyable one!

Jose.

I need support, what should I do.

If you are looking to receive a Home Care Package, you will need to be assessed and found eligible by an Aged Care Assessment Team (ACAT).

An ACAT assessment is a meeting with a member of the team such as a doctor, nurse, social worker or other health professional to assess your care needs and talk to you about how well you are managing in your day-to-day life. They will help identify the right services for your needs and work out what level of care you require. The ACAT will provide you with a letter that tells you which types of subsidised services you have been approved to receive. The team might also put you in touch with organisations in your local area that can deliver the services you need.

The ACAT will set out the next steps for you after your assessment. You can find more information on this website:

www.myagedcare.gov.au

Help at home: Costs explained.

The Australian Government subsidises a range of aged care services in Australia. If your personal circumstances allow it, it is expected that you will contribute towards the cost of your care, if you can afford to do so.

The funding programme or package through which you access aged care services at home will determine how much you will need to pay. Any fees and eligibility for subsidy will be discussed and agreed upon with your service provider before you receive the relevant services.

If you have more questions, please feel free to call the CURA In-home-Care Team on: (08) 9382 1983 during business hours.

Results of the May Sunday Drive & In Memoriam

Results of the Sunday Klaverjas Drive held on the 1st of May 2016.

It is Sunday morning 10.45, 15 minutes to go before the competition starts and we have only 19 players. This means only 4 playing tables and 3 extra players, who cannot participate as during the Sunday Drive we cannot have any reserve players. (invallers)

The organisers are anxiously watching the door to see if any last minute players are still arriving. Their anxious wait is rewarded as in drips and drops another 5 players still turn up.

This meant we still had 6 playing tables.

Besides the 24 players we still had two non-players present. Thea looked after the admission fees; the coffee table; she ordered the lunch from the Kitchen and assisted with the washing up. Thank you Thea from all of us.

Lunch was once again sumptuous, just as we are used to by now, prepared by Chef Rudi.

It seemed to be very much appreciated by all as there was hardly a crumb left on the plates.

After a fierce competition, the score cards were checked to find the winners.

And what a competition day it was! Everyone of the six tables had one player, who had a score of 7000 points or more and between the six players was only 289 points the difference. So all worthy of a price. However, there can only be 3 winners and they were:

Prize Winners:

1 st prize:	Jan Lagerwey	7284 points
2 nd prize:	Jo Smit	7177 points
3 rd prize:	Barbera Penello	7085 points

Congratulations to all of them!! Well done!

And it was good to see for once a few different names on the winners board!

The June competition will be held on the 5th of June and the July competition on the 3rd of July.

Pieter.

The Winners: (l.t.r.) Jo Smit, 2nd prize; Barbera Penello, 3rd prize; Jan Lagerwey, 1st prize.

Thea, who is the financial organiser, did not play. Faithful hubby Thijs, however, did the right thing and kept her company during the Lunch.

Corrie & Bep did not mind that lunch was interrupted for a photo and a chance to get it published in our magazine.

Wellness: Medals for two Neerlandia stars

Running Dutchies.

One day, four young Dutch women, who met each other in the Dutch Club, decided to join in in the annual City to Surf Run. They started training together and the night prior to the run they ate pasta together, while motivating each other for the day ahead of them.

Two and half years later, Liora and Bach have returned to the Netherlands, whilst Eveline and Inge kept the tradition up. So much so that this year they felt ready to run a marathon. Inge had already done one, yet Eveline managed to persuade her to run one more. Not just any marathon, it had to be the prettiest (and hardest?) marathon in Australia: The Great Ocean Road Marathon in Victoria, which is 44 kms!

For 18 weeks the lasses trained three times a week, of which one session would be together on Wednesday mornings before work.

After this gruelling training program, Inge and Eveline flew to Melbourne to appear, together, at the start of the GORM 2016 on Sunday 15 May.

The race was from Lorne to Apollo Bay and as they told us, very pretty and very hard going while running up and down numerous hills in typical Melbourne weather: Sunshine, rain and a good headwind.

The last two kilometres, according to Inge, were the hardest and the relief and the satisfaction of making it to the finish, took away their slight disappointment about the times they'd ran.

After the marathon and a hot shower, they enjoyed a pizza and chocolate while watching a DVD with their feet elevated.

So what now? After a two-week period of R&R, the Wednesday morning runs will be resumed; time will tell if and when they will partake in other events again. What counts most for both Inge and Eveline at the moment is that the two Dutchies now live with the knowledge and the subsequent satisfaction that they were a part of something big in their new homeland. Congratulations Inge & Eveline, we salute you and we are looking forward to see your medals when you next work behind the bar during the M&WB. We at Neerlandia are chuffed to know that your friendship started at the Dutch Club!

The Box Under the Bed.

When Bill and Hillary first got married, Bill said: "I put a box under the bed. Promise me you will never look in it." For the first 30 years of marriage, Hillary kept her word and never looked in it. However, on the afternoon of their 30th anniversary, curiosity got the better of her and she lifted the lid and peeked inside. In it were 3 empty beer cans and $81,874.25 in cash.

She closed the box and put it back under the bed. Now that she knew what was in the box, she was doubly curious as to why there was such a box with those curious contents.

That evening, they were out for a special anniversary dinner.

After dinner, Hillary could no longer contain her curiosity and she confessed, saying: "I'm so sorry, Bill. For all these years, I kept my promise and never looked into the box under our bed."

However, today the temptation was too much and I gave in. But now I need to know, why do you keep the 3 beer cans in the box?"

Bill thought for a while and said: "I guess after all these years you deserve to know the truth."

Whenever I was unfaithful to you, I put an empty beer can in the box under the bed to remind myself not to do it again."

Hillary was shocked, but thought: "Hmmm, possibly Jennifer, Paula and Monica. And since I know he's very addicted to sex, three times is not too bad."

She said: "OK Bill, I guess I can forgive you."

Bill thanked her for being so understanding. They hugged and made their peace."

A little while later Hillary asked Bill: "So why do you have all that money in the box?"

He answered: "Well, whenever the box filled up with empty cans, I took them to the recycling centre!"

At the new Seniors Village Centre.

On the first day at the new Seniors Village Centre, the manager addressed all the new Seniors, pointing out some of the rules:

"The female sleeping quarters will be out-of-bounds for all males and the male dormitory to the females. Anybody caught breaking this rule will be fined $20 the first time."

He continued: "Anybody caught breaking this rule the second time will be fined $60. Being caught a third time will cost you a fine of $80. Are there any questions?"

At this point, a sprightly elderly gentleman still with a twinkle in his eye stood up and asked:

"How much for a season pass???"

I want 4 little animals...

Mama taught her well! You've got to love this little girl. What a woman she'll make.

A teacher asked her class: "What do you want out of life?"

A little girl in the back row raised her hand and said: "All I want out of life is four little animals, just like my Mom always says".

The teacher asked: "Really and what four little animals would that be?"

The little girl said: "A mink on my back, a jaguar in the garage, a tiger in the bed and a jackass to pay for all of it."

The teacher got a coughing fit and had to leave the room to recover.

The gallant Scotsman.

A Scotsman and his wife walked past a swanky new restaurant...

"Did you smell that food?" she observed.

"It smells absolutely incredible!"

Being a kind-hearted husband, he thought:

"What the heck..., I'll give her a treat!"

So, they walked past it again...

The vibrant City of Goes

Flag & Coat of Arms of Goes.

Goes is a municipality and a city in the southwester in the district Zuid-Beveland of the province of Zeeland, the Netherlands. The town of Goes has approximately 29,000 residents.

History:

Goes was founded in the 10th century on the edge of a creek called: "De Korte Gos." Hence the name Goes!

The village grew fast and early in the 12th century it had a market square and a church devoted to Mary Magdalene. In 1405 Goes received city rights from William, Duke of Bavaria, by his right as Count of Holland and in 1417 it was allowed to build town walls.

The prosperity of the city was based upon the cloth industry and the production of salt. In the 16th century Goes declined. Its connection to the sea silted up and in 1554 a large fire destroyed part of the city.

In Autumn 1572, during the course of the Eighty Years' War, Goes, situated in the Spanish occupied part of the Netherlands, was besieged by Dutch forces with the support of English troops. The siege was relieved in October 1572 by Spanish Tercios, who waded across the Scheldt to attack the besieging forces.

The inner harbour surrounded by traditional houses.

In 1577 the Spanish soldiers who occupied Goes were driven out by Prince Maurits of Nassau. The prince built a defence wall around Goes, which is still partly standing. From the 17th century Goes was not an important city, except as an agricultural centre.

It did not suffer extensive damage during the Second World War, but was under German occupation until 1944.

There was little population growth until the 1970s and 1980s. Then the city grew fast because of new districts like Goese Meer, Oostmolenpark, Overzuid and Ouverture were being established. It is now the fourth largest economic centre in Zeeland.

De Vechte, a quiet waterway for recreation.

Even more districts are being planned, amongst them Goese Schans, Mannee and Aria, where 3,000 new houses are to be built.

Kings Day in Goes:

This was celebrated in 2016, with a Vrijmarkt along the waterway "de Veste", with boat races for young budding sailors and the highlight was a very popular concert in the town.

Vrijmarkt & sailing.

Celebrating Kings Day.

De Grote Markt in the centre of Goes is always popular.

The vibrant City of Goes

The Dutch love their outdoor terraces and on a nice day the sidewalks of the cafés are packed.

Railway and Tram:

In 1868 a railway was constructed through Goes, but this did not lead to prosperity nor to industrialisation. Agriculture remained the most important economic activity.

The Tourist Steam Train.

The railway station.

The old tramline was saved, restored and these days it is a tourist route between Goes and Borsele, completely manned and maintained by volunteers.

CODEBREAKER PUZZLE

A Codebreaker is a crossword puzzle with no clues! Every letter of the alphabet has been replaced by a number, the same number represents the same letter always.

For this puzzle only the first three letters are revealed. Start with entering these letters throughout the puzzle first and then start guessing your first word.

If you are unsure, use a pencil to start, then if it does not work out you can erase and start again.

The last Codebreaker was really difficult and you needed to find the unusual word "Oratorio,"

After that you needed "Cavalier and Stalagmite", after which you were well on the way to solve it. The solution of the last month's Codebreaker was:

A=10; B=15; C=11; D=4; E=7; F=19; G=2; H=12; I=1; J=5; K=20; L=8; M=17; N=25; O=22; P=21; Q=6; R=9; S=13; T=3; U=14; V=18; W=23; X=16; Y=26; Z=24.
